

We are currently looking for:

Vietnamese-qualified lawyers in HCMC and Hanoi (Junior and Mid-Level)

Job Description:

We are looking for motivated junior- to mid level Vietnamese-qualified lawyers. This opportunity would suit an ambitious and career-focused lawyer who wants to deal with complex cross-border cases. Key responsibilities include:

1. Advising clients on enterprise- and investment laws and related regulations.
2. Advising clients on the most suitable legal entity to make investment in Vietnam.
3. Preparing, reviewing, and handling all types of corporate, investment, and commercial related agreements including, but not limited to, joint venture agreements, shareholders' agreements, merger and acquisition agreements, and other ancillary agreements.
4. Advising and assisting clients to apply for approval or license.
5. Handling cases independently from beginning until completion.
6. Formulating legal strategies, providing legal opinions and analytical responses to clients' requests for legal advice, and acting as the primary point of contact for clients.
7. Preparing and delivering presentations on related fields for associations, conferences, and conventions; writing articles; and participating in a wide range of other marketing and business development initiatives.
8. Performing assigned administrative matters, including billing and collection of fees for legal work performed.

Job Requirements:

1. At least two (2) years of practical post-qualification experience in business law (commercial-, corporate and foreign investment laws).
2. Admission as a lawyer to the Hanoi or HCMC Bar.
3. Excellent English speaking and writing skills, ideally proven by a post-graduate degree in an English-speaking jurisdiction.
4. Excellent legal analytical-, drafting- and research skills.
5. Able to work independently and under time-pressure.
6. Knowledge of German language and culture would be an asset.

Please contact us at: matthias.duehn@vietdiligence.com